A MESSAGE FROM MRS. MEYMANN

Smiling faces and times with grandparents seem to naturally go together. It certainly seemed that way when our grandparents and other special people came to visit this week. I could certainly see a few strong family resemblances and of course, the grandparents took great pride in the accomplishments of their grandkids. In fact, several grandparents assured me students had certainly gotten their brains, abilities, athleticism and senses of humor from the grandparents, rather than the parents! Special Thanks to Mrs. Lipp and her team of parents for providing the tasty treats and keeping the coffee pots full. We also thank our 7th and 8th grade students and Mrs. Schwab for helping with serving foods and beverages, greeting and directing our special visitors, and for helping ensure a quick clean up and putting away many folding chairs. Thank you to everyone who helped with our Grandparents' Days!

Who is Mr. Puckett? Mr. Puckett is the long-term substitute for Mrs. Griffin, who is taking child care leave a little early as she prepares to have twins this spring. Mr. Jordan Puckett is completing his Master of Arts in English Education at Thomas Moore College and is also very involved with teaching religion and helping with the 6-12 grades' Passion Play in his home parish. He has been substitute teaching in the public schools and also works at Joseph -Beth Booksellers, so he has a great knowledge of both classic literature and what is new in Young Adult and Children's literature. We welcome Mr. Puckett to St. Johns and continue to pray for the well-being of Mrs. Griffin and her little ones. Mr. Puckett has a staff email and may be reached at puckett_j@sjbharrison.org should parents wish to contact him. So far, he has had only positives to share regarding our students. Thanks, students, for making him feel so welcome and for displaying your best behaviors!

All Iowa Assessments have been packed up and sent off for scoring. We expect to have results to share with parents in about a month.

Our entire staff will be joining Catholic educators from across the United States at the National Convention during our Easter Vacation this year. There will be dozens of professional workshops and tabletop discussions dealing with everything from using technology in classrooms to preparing students for Sacraments. Cincinnati has not hosted this National Catholic Education Convention in more than twenty-five years, and so we are looking forward to learning with thousands of other educators from across the nation. We expect to return, loaded with fresh ideas for working with students and each other!
